

Op-Ed organizer

What is the title?	Town Music Shop Blows the Horn on Needed Music Education
Who is the author?	Henry Schwinkle
Why is the author writing?	He wants to convince readers that music should be taught in schools. He also wants readers to come to an information session.
Who will read the Op-Ed?	Residents of your town
What is it about? What is the topic?	Music programs in the schools have been cut.
What does the author think about this topic?	The author believes that we should start teaching music in the schools again.
What support does the author use to prove his ideas?
How does the author conclude or end the Op-Ed?	