

Deciding what to include on your list of references

- Review the in-text citations that you included in your writing.
- Each source that is mentioned in an in-text citation should have a corresponding entry on your list of references EXCEPT for personal communications.
- Your list of references should NOT include sources you read but did not use in your writing.
- When you cite the same source multiple times, you only need one corresponding reference list entry.

Sources for list of references:

- ✓ Upton, 2017 INCLUDE
- ✓ Francise, 2015 INCLUDE
- ✗ Tanaka, 2016 DON'T INCLUDE.
(personal communication)
- Upton, 2017 ALREADY INCLUDED
- ✗ Johnson, 2008 DON'T INCLUDE
(did not use)
