

The 8 parts of speech

| Part | What it does | Examples |
|---------------------|--|--|
| Noun | Names a person, place, thing, or idea. | The wrestler stepped into the ring . |
| Pronoun | Takes the place of a noun. | He stepped into the ring. |
| Verb | Expresses the action or condition of a noun. | The team jumped up and down. The fruitcake is delicious. |
| Adjective | Describes a noun or pronoun. | The frisky puppy wagged his tail. |
| Adverb | Modifies a verb, an adjective, or another adverb. | The ballerina danced slowly . The kids were very happy when it snowed. Tim paints extremely well. |
| Preposition | Relates a noun or pronoun to another word in the sentence. | The bear went over the mountain. We are going to the grocery store. |
| Conjunction | Connects words, groups of words, or sentences. | The smartphone and the tablet are both small enough to carry everywhere. |
| Interjection | Expresses excitement or strong feeling. | Ouch! The frying pan is still hot. |